

Ground, Protect & Celebrate!

Chichester, Saturday 29 April 2017

With Mirjam Janse

No matter how stressful and challenging this new year is, it's important to keep an eye on your grounding to stay balanced. Also protecting yourself from external influences is part of your grounding. Show a leg!

All participants receive practical information, a personal scan and suggestions how to improve their grounding and protection.

The shoes you walk in might turn out to be great dancing shoes!
